A Message from Freeholder Director Daniel Beyel

As we face yet another year of declining revenues and a substantial loss in our ratable base, Cape May County government is responding to current financial difficulties with a comprehensive assessment of our operations.

Over the last two years, we have made significant changes in delivering services that are more efficient and less costly. These changes have allowed us to protect the services that residents need and expect from county government while keeping our budget affordable to the taxpayers of Cape May County.

As we move forward facing future economic uncertainties, we will continue to change the face of county government with new ideas, innovations and different methods in getting things accomplished. We will continue to cut the size of county government and aggressively pursue more shared services with our municipalities and neighboring counties.

We will make sure that Cape May County government continues to be an example of excellence in serving its residents and maintaining sound financial standing throughout the state.

Part of our efforts to best serve you is this handy directory that will help you find the county services you need as well as information and contacts of your representatives in other levels of government.

If you're looking for more in-depth information, we suggest you visit our website capemaycountygov.net. If you have any difficulty in finding something specific, contact our Communications Director, Lenora Boninfante at 609-465-1066.

Thank you for giving us the opportunity to work for you.

What is a Freeholder?

A freeholder is the elected county government representative in New Jersey who serves on the county's main governing body, the Board of Chosen Freeholders. The term "freeholder" originates from medieval England and was designated to individuals who owned property. During this period, only those individuals who held property "free" and clear were eligible to vote in elections as well as to hold public office. Influenced by early English tradition, the State of New Jersey continued to use the title "freeholder" in its 21 county governments.

The Cape May County Board of Chosen Freeholders was incorporated by an act of the New Jersey Legislature in 1798. The modern board consists of five members that are elected "at-large" to three-year staggered terms. The board is organized every January when departments are designated and a director and vice-director are selected.

What are the duties of a Freeholder?

-m-

Under Cape May County's form of government, the Board of Chosen Freeholders acts as both the legislative and executive branches of county government. As legislators, the Board of Chosen Freeholders adopts resolutions establishing its policies of governing as well as its budgetary decisions in the appropriation of county tax dollars. It also adopts ordinances that authorize county borrowing and the incurring of debt for short and long term capital improvements for county equipment and facilities.

In its executive capacity, the freeholder board appoints the county administrator and all department heads to carry out the mandates established by their resolutions and ordinances. Each freeholder is designated to oversee the day-to-day operations of specific county departments as well as serve as liaison to various authorities, boards, councils, commissions and committees established within county government.

Southern New Jersey Freeholders' Association outgoing President Dan Beyel was recognized for his leadership by Camden County Freeholder Rodney Greco, 2011 President and Cape May County Freeholder Vice-Director Leonard C. Desiderio was sworn-in as Treasurer on January 24, 2011.

Official County Seal adopted in 1927

Notwithstanding the importance and wide use of the seal, its origin remains a mystery. The original sketch of the county seal by architects Edwards and Green has been interpreted differently by historians and county officials through the years.

At first glance it is easy to identify the outline of the county in the center of the seal along with an approaching maritime vessel. After that, opinions vary as to what the other objects on the seal represent.

For example, one historian believes the ship was owned by Henry Hudson while others contend it was Captain Mey's, the recognized founder of Cape May County. The items depicted in the rim of the seal have been described as flying fish or whales, seagulls, doves, white cedar blossoms and even holly flowers. Still others say the seal includes anchors and a lighthouse depicting the shipping trade. Most agree the use of cornucopia symbolizes the county's bountiful vegetation. Even with the debate surrounding the seal, it remains an integral part of county government. The seal can be found on official documents, publications and the county's website.

The 1927 original casting of the seal resides on the wall of the Freeholders' Meeting Room behind the dais.
